

Dr. Anil Kumar
Consultant Radiologist
M.B.B.S., DMRD, MD (RIMS)
Ex-SR MGM Medical College (JSR)
A.P., NMCH Sasaram

 MEDICUS
Imaging & Diagnostic Centre

Name: RAJIV SINGH

Age/Sex: -35Yrs/M

Date: 25.01.2023

Region Scanned: USG - Whole Abdomen

Ref By: Dr. SELF

THANKS FOR THE REFERRAL

LIVER: - Mild enlarged in size (15.2 cm). Mildly increased parenchymal echotexture. Intrahepatic biliary radicles are not dilated.

G. BLADDER: - Wall thickness mildly increased, measuring ~4.2 mm. Couple of calculus of size ~ 11 mm and 4.7 mm seen in lumen.

C.B.D: - Normal caliber. Lumen echo free.

P. VEIN: - Normal caliber. Lumen echo free.

PANCREAS: - Normal in size and echotexture. Pancreatic duct is not dilated.

SPLEEN: - Enlarged in size (12.7 cm). Normal echotexture.

RIGHT KIDNEY: - Normal in size (10.4 cm). Outline is regular. Corticomedullary differentiation is intact. Multiple calculus of varying sizes are seen, size ~ 5.6 mm, 4.5 mm, 3.6 mm and 3.3 mm seen at upper pole calyx with focal caliectasis.

LEFT KIDNEY: - Normal in size (11.0 cm). Outline is regular. Corticomedullary differentiation is intact. Pelvicalyceal system is not dilated.

URETER: - Both ureters are not dilated.

U. BLADDER: - Wall thickness normal. Lumen echo free.

PROSTATE: - Normal in size (16 gms). Normal echotexture.

No evidence of ascites or retroperitoneal lymphadenopathy is seen.

IMPRESSION:

Mild hepatomegaly with grade 1 fatty changes.

Mild splenomegaly.

Calculus cholecystitis (Couple of calculus of size ~ 11 mm and 4.7 mm seen in lumen).

Multiple calculus of varying sizes are seen in right kidney, size ~ 5.6 mm, 4.5 mm, 3.6 mm and 3.3 mm seen at upper pole calyx with focal caliectasis.

DR. ANIL KUMAR
DMRD, MD.
(Consultant Radiologist).